

Louisville Democrat.

FRIDAY..... MARCH 27, 1857.

Personal:

Mr. James Anderson, the distinguished tragedian, though ill, was prevented from appearing at the Louisville Theater last evening. He is recovering, however, and will doubtless make his first appearance this evening.

Isaac Vanenshal, a most prominent gentleman in the pork trade in Cincinnati, is now a visitor to our city. As a business man he has no superior, and as a conversationalist cannot be excelled. He leaves for home to-morrow morning, with a view to return and establish himself again.

Rev. Dr. Everts, of the Walnut-street Baptist Church of this city, delivered his popular lecture upon "Parsons and the Parisans" in New Albany, on Wednesday evening. The Doctor speaks in the highest terms of the effect.

Prof. Fowler, the eminent physiologist, has commenced his course of lectures in New Albany.

W. P. Hahn, Esq., has received the contract for clearing and preparing the ground for the reservoir for the City Water Works, and is prosecuting the work with energy.

HOLMES' READINGS.—One of the most pleasing entertainments ever vouchsafed to our citizens, is given by the Young Men's Christian Association this evening, at Mozart Hall. Instead of a lecture, they have secured the services of Prof. U. A. Holley, of the Louisville Female High School, who will recite the "Sailor Part of the Merchant of Venice," as the "Building of the Ship," by Longfellow. Prof. H. is one of the most interesting and effective readers in the country, and sustains a high reputation in the North and East as an elocutionist. A rich intellectual treat is in store such as attend these readings, and if the knowledge of the distinguished reader's abilities were generally known, there would not be a vacant seat in the vast hall.

STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT.—We learn by telegraph from Portland, and also by our old friend Robert Becker, who was a passenger on the Grappler, that there was a collision between the steamer J. H. Oglesby, bound down, and the steamer Grappler, bound up, about 4 o'clock. Both boats are supposed to be sunk, the Grappler having made the Kentucky shore, and the Oglesby the Indiana shore. They will but doubtless be raised.

STEAMBOAT BURNED.—The steamer Sultanah well known in the Louisville and New Orleans trade, was burned at Hickman on Wednesday night. She was coming to this port, and the amount of freight has not been ascertained. On, Mr. Tyner's agency. Mr. R. Atkinson lost $2,500 of s.s.t. Last year the Sultanah was bought for $12,500 by Capt. D. G.

RAILROAD CONNECTION WITH ST. LOUIS.—Within the period of ten days, the Superintendent of the New Albany and Salem Railroad will place a train upon the road to run in close connection with the trains over the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, to connect at Mitchell Ind. The New Albany road will then be the great thoroughfare between this city and St. Louis.

WE ARE INFORMED that we are informed that many accidents now from steamer landing at the Portland wharf. There might have been an accidental failure in some instances recently, but the wharf master is vigilant in the performance of his duty, and the most fastidious have never complained of a deficiency in his part.

CONVICTS ARRESTED.—A man, purposing to come from Scott county, was arrested yesterday, charged with passing several one dollar counterfeits notes on the Northern Bank of Keokuk. Other notes of the same denomination were found in the man's possession. The party arrested refused to give his name.

The Louisville Herald, of the 25th inst., says that a difficulty occurred near Rockport, in that county, on Wednesday night last, between Ben. Simms and Lockhart Carter, in which the latter was severely, if not fatally, stoned by the former. Both individuals were intoxicated at the time.

THE borders in public house of the city vacated the premises recently, because it required a week-end to reach the looking glass. We don't think the errant gentlemen were warranted in leaving the house, for it is generally admitted that there is but a step from the saloon to the railroad.

PROSECUTOR WANTED.—Mrs. Mallett had John Carr before Police Court yesterday, on a peace warrant, for threatening to take her life. The life of Mrs. Mallett was vouchsafed to her for the period of three months; John Carr having been held to bail for that length of time in a bond of $500.

HOMICIDE.—James Smith, a negro of Mrs. Gill, was found dead in the streets of Mayfield on Sunday morning last. The Coroner held an inquest, at which J. H. Bowles confessed the homicide, but said it was committed in self-defense.

MURDER NEAR CINCINNATI.—A huckster, known as "Chicken Mike," was shot through the heart, on the Harrison Pike, three miles from Cincinnati, on Wednesday last. The murderer has not been discovered.

POSTMASTER AT NEW ORLEANS.—The Washington of the 24th, makes an official announcement of the appointment of R. E. McMillan as Postmaster at New Orleans, vice Arthur S. Nevitt, removed.

"I presume you have seen John this morning," said a sober-minded individual yesterday to an enfeebled friend. "What John do you mean?" quoth Bill "Demi-John, to be sure," was the reply.

That bearded woman, who has excited much wonderment among our citizens, is still in the city. Mr. Barnum has not been along this way late, or a public exhibition would have been had here.

THAT floating ornament of our waters, the Jacob Star, is the mail-boat for Cincinnati to-day at noon. Down beds and a cheerful crew is sufficient for those to Cincinnati bound.

W. A. EAVES SOLD.—Certain parties in Cleveport purchased the steamer W. A. Eaves yesterday, at $2,500. She is to be placed in the Louisville and Henderson trade.

A German woman was declared insane yesterday, by a jury of peers, in Police Court, and will be sent to the Asylum at Lexington.

THE alarm of fire about five o'clock yesterday afternoon, was caused by the burning of a stable at Oakland.

Thanks to W. A. Putnam, Esq., for a Cincinnati paper of yesterday.

For the Louisville Democrat
To the Memory of Lieut. M. S. Gross, N. Y.
BY T. G. MORRISON.

How sait we poor soldiers
Over so young and brave,
Yet life, with all its trials and toils,
Must end in the grave.

I knew thy nobleness of heart,
And shared thy friendship dear,
And thou alone would move a stone
To shed a parting tear.

Step in peace! mid kindred death;
Endearing, rest thy tomb!
Ever be it to me that shall
Ever bear to think of thee!

The bright dream in morn will rown
The soul to shades of thought,
With the army of the dead,
Till quartered for the night.

The morn will dawn—God's trumpet-tongue
Will sound its last alarm,
Then will most be born and be overcome
Time-comrades in Heaven.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Mr. C. C. Spencer made the following sales of real estate on yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance, and the prices ruled at advanced rates over last year's sales, showing a decided improvement in property value.

Two lots, 30 feet front, by 165 deep, each, on north side of Broadway, between Brook and Floyd, sold at $10 per foot.

One lot, 52½ feet front by 290 deep, on south side of Broadway, between Floyd and Preston, sold at $49 per foot.

One lot, 52½ feet front by 200 'est, east of and adjoining the above, sold at $46 per foot.

Two lots, 30 feet front, by 190 deep, each, on south side of Brook street, between Floyd and Preston, sold at $29 per foot.

Terms, one-third cash, balance, one and two years, with interest.

DR. RAY'S COFFEE BOILERS.—We call attention to the advertisement of Dr. Ray's coffee-boilers in another column. Four physicians of Indianapolis, who stand at the head of the medical profession in Indiana, certify that coffee and tea prepared in these boilers are more healthy, because they retain the volatile oils, which are prepared in the ordinary way, which allows those to waste by evaporation. This is a matter in which everybody is interested; and as the purchaser is allowed to return his boiler with four days, if he does not like it, we think everybody ought to try one; and if they are more pleasant, and more economical is represented, of course they will keep them.

THEATER.—In consequence of the severe illness of Mr. Anderson, he did not appear last night, and the Gunstock of Moscow was performed by the company. To-night a fine bill is offered, including two pieces that are as good new to our people. The bill should draw a full house, and no doubt will.

To-morrow night, as will be seen by his card, Mr. C. C. Hamilton will take a benefit. We speak for him a full house.

J. G. GRAFTON rescued a boy from drowning yesterday afternoon. The boy had been playing upon the foredeck of one of the completed boats at the lower wharf, and accidentally fell overboard. Grafton, as is his wont, ran and succeeded in bringing ashore and delivering into the arms of the mother, the supposed lifeless form of a cherished child. Mr. Atkinson gives great praise for the noble act.

SHOCKING.—Yesterday a little son of Nieho Scammon, about seven years old, left our old schoolroom, and was dashed to death by a Milton, Kentucky, and was scalded to death. The little fellow was raised from four o'clock in the afternoon, till eight in the evening, when his body was found floating in the shop, his legs completely cooked! We are indebted to Mr. J. W. Thomas, of the Prairie Bird, for the particulars of this distressing occurrence.

Melvin Courier, 25th.

17 In Penn, the revolutionists under Vassal are making but little progress. They have captured the big fort of war Guise in the harbor of Callao. It was reported that President Castilla had contracted with some Yankees to do his fighting, but this probably is an old rumor revived. meantime, vessels are loading gunpowder permits from General Vassal, who is body in want of funds, from 20,000 to twenty-five dollars per ton, and even less sum.
